DISTRIBUTORS OPPOSED

There does seem to exist, however, a determination on the part of the distributors, or, to be more accurate some of the distributors, for not all come under this condemnation, to put obstacles in the way of genuine accomplishment. They do not offer their resistance openly, according to White House observation, but instead they reach over and get the farmer himself to come in and resist, the opposition thus apparently coming from the farm element.

In addition, there is an element that blocks the way. If includes those who want nothing done unless they do it themselves.

The President has a certain amount of sympathy with these gentlemen and wishes there were more of them, for he would be glad to hand over to them the work of helping the farmer.

The President apparently is chaggined but has not given up hopes that eventually legislation will be obtained in accordance with the recommendations of his commission. He is going to keep on working to that end in any event.

On Capitol hill the belief prevails that the President's efforts will not be crowned with success until next year. There are a few, however, who think with Senator Borash that an emergency exists, requiring a special session.

But he has observed that every time a sincere attempt is made to help the farmers, those who live off the farmers, those who live off the farmers, those who live off the farmers of the distribution of the farmer's products resist this effort. The President does not know why they do so unless they think that if the farmer is helped they will be injured, a theory with which the President is not in accord.

The exact status of the revolutionary movement is not known, but recent indications are that it has been appreciably increased by Federal descritions and peon adhesions, and is now a serious menace to the Rio Grande Federal forces, whose levalty to the state government is questionable.

Treasury Surplus Hit by Salary Measures

President Has Not Made Known Decision

Might Necessitate Special Session

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Pres ident Coolidge today conferred with Brig.-Gen. Herbert M. Lord, with Brig.-Gen. Herbert M. Lord. Director of the Budget, on the postal pay and increased Congressional salary bills as they affect the status of the Treasury. The latest figures produced by the Postoffice Department now indicate that the increased postal revenue bill as agreed upon by the Senate and the House will fall to produce enough revenue to pay the increased postal salaries and that a deficit of more than $20,000.000 remains.

The increased Congressional salaries bill will take $1,350,000 out of the Treasury and the estimated surplus in the Treasury at $68,000.000. Isewing a surplus of approximately $40,000.000 if the President signs both bills.

COURSE NOT INDICATED

COURSE NOT INDICATED COURSE NOT INDICATED

Thus far the President has not indicated what he intends to do with either of these measures. It is understood that Secretary Mellon of the Treasury Department has told members of Congress that the Treasury can stand the increase in Congressional salaries, but it follows as a natural consequence that if the President is to sign that bill he must, of necessity, sign the postal pay bill unless he wishes to place upon Congress the whole responsibility for raising its own salary in the face of a governmental economy program.

face of a governmental economy program.

Undoubtedly the Budget Bureau has made a definite recommendation to the President and in all probability the President will follow it, but thus far no information has been made public indicating the position of the bareau or the President.

Meantime the President is urgling Congress to dispose of the remaining appropriation bills by Monday, including the interior, second deficiency and District of Columbia bills. This move is interpreted in some quarters as mere routine and in others as indicating that the President wants a clear road ahead for the legislative appropriation bill which must be re-enacted if the Congressional salary provision is vetoed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Max Thelen, counsel for the city of Los Angeles, closed the argument on the union station plan for the Plaza site in Los Angeles before the Interstate Commerce Commission today. He followed T. J.
Norton of the Santa Fe who argued against any union station as recommendations of the Farm Commission and backed by the leaders of the four most important far as the Santa Fe was concerned and who attacked the Plaza site as no better than the present Santa Fe property.

Norton declared that if the unline station squabble had not been injected into the situation in Los Angeles the Santa Fe would have built a new terminal of its own on the station station and support the station in the station in Los Angeles the Santa Fe would have built a new terminal of its own on the station and backed by the leaders of the four most important interest of the Norris-La Follette group as well as of some of the eastern Republicans and, apparently, it cannot be passed.

Advocates of farm legislation hope to demonstrate today or to-morrow whether anything can be done with either bill.

Earl Clark, formerly a solicitor for the National University of Science, was the first of the trio to testify. In the background sat Dr. C. Faiman, president of the school, and John Marchand, who once served as one of its promoters, R was Marchand who identified Shepherd. He did so without hesitation, as soon as he was brought into the room.

Mr. Clark stated that he is now employed as a salesman by a reality company, and that subsequent to his leaving the National University he was connected with the University of Northern Illinois, a similar school. He identified Dr. Faiman and Mr. Marchand as former associates in the work of the National University, and then was questioned by Chief Justice Olson of the Municipal Court.

In the course of his testimony. Clark declared:

"Marchand told me about a person who had written for information about a course in bacteriology and whose pictures had subsequently appeared in the newspapers. He said that he had been appointed to visit this prospect and had gone to the applicant's office. He had noticed, he said, that the name on the door was not the one that had been appointed to visit this prospect and had gone to the applicant's office. He had noticed, he said, that the name on the door was not the one that had been sprices after taking over the course with this man."

"He said that the letter was in the flee of the school and he wanted me to go back and get the letter." Clark continued. "I did not do it. He explained that he couldn't go back because he and Dr. Faiman, the president, were on the outs.

"He said: 'If we can get that letter it's worth $50,000 to us.' I made an appointment to see him the next day, but he did not show up."

The columns of Sheik Said are still overrunning fourteen Kurdish repelied from the country and continually scheming to overthow the republic. The committee has carried on active propaganda in such clerical centers as Konis, Prusa, Ersereum, Trebizond and Constantinople, and the governments.

Sheik Said has distributed a proclamation in every corner of Kurdistan:

"We are going to restore the Caliph; Islam cannot exist without the Caliph as spiritual chief; no Caliph has ever been expelled by any government except the Turkish republic. It is our religious schools, and beginning to confiscate religious property has caused deep feeling in the country.

A second danger is that if Turkey becomes deeply involved in the revolt in Kurdistan it may encourage Greece to review the pathiarchate question and begin troop concentrations on the frontier.

Turkish women are all uncovered at theism progresses in the schools. The regime must be overthrown."

The revolt is directed from Syria arrive only in five days.

Thirty Stations Will Relay

Coolidge Speech

washington, Feb. 27.—By means of the radio millions of American citizens will some time next Wednesday have the opportunity of listening to the inaugural address of the President of the United States. One statistician has estimated that there will be something like 17,000,000 men, women and children within the sound of ear phones or loud speak era as President Coolidge delivers his address. Another estimate has placed the number as high as 25,000,000.

Four years ago the newspapers reported that a record-breaking number of persons had listened to the inaugural address of President Harding. The number was estimated at from 100,000 to 125,000. That occasion marked an epoch in that, for the first time, at an important public affair, amplitters were installed by the telephonecompany officials. By means of amplifiers the voice of President Harding, speaking from a stand in the open air in front of the stepp of the Capitol, was heard as far away as the Congressional Library.

Omaha Swindler Could Talk Most Convincingly

Made High Officials Believe They Knew Him

Cities Await Turn at Him When Term Ends

OMAHA, Feb. 17.—Stephen Dasmon, Harvard, '97, and said to be a prince of petty confidence men, credited with living by his wits for twenty years and more, has just been sentenced to prison in the Omaha Federal Court on a charge of using the mails to defraud. When he gets out, Federal anthorities in San Francisco want him. After San Francisco want him. After San Francisco gets through with him, Seattle is to get him. Then, in turn, Spokane, Helena, Cheyenne, Sait Lake City, Denver and other western cities are to have a try.

When arrested in Montans for the Omaha job, Daemon leisurely remarked to the postoffice inspectory who got him. "Just telegraph my good friend Atty.-Gen. Stone and tell him what you have done. He will order my release by wire."

Among papers in Daemon's pocket when searched was a letter from the Governor of Pennsylvania, and another one from President Coolidge's secretary. And while he was in jail in Omaha awaiting trial there came letters from Senators. Congressmen, ludges and business men asking what was the matter. Daemon wheed so much row that Atty.-Gen. Stone telegraphed to Omaha authorities to know what it was all about. By telegraph and wire Daemon had actually convinced these people that they knew him—but the postal inspectors convinced the trial judge that not a single one of them actually did know him.

MOOTH TALKER

them actually did know him.

SMOOTH TAIMER

"He's such a good and plausible talker that we have all we can do to prevent these turnkeys in the jail from letting him out," the inspectors told the court.

Daemon went at "big people," but he didn't go after "big money." If he had, he would have been a millionaire, officers say.

He went after Attorney Burke on a horse proposition. Burke is a horse fancier. Daemon get in touch with Burke by telegraph collect and offered to send him a fine western riding horse as a sample. If Burke liked the horse he could buy others at an agreed price. Burke fell. Then Daemon thought 100 to pay the charges from Wyenning te Pittsburg was abeut right. So did Burke. Daemon got a check and the money. Burke got the canceled check. Daemon never had a lorse.

Along the same lines Daemon and the money. But as got the canceled check. Dasmon never had a horse.

Along the same lines Daemon
got in touch with Dudley P. Rogers, Bosion, another big man. Here the horse deal got far enough for Rogers to ask Daemon by telegraph how he wanted the $190 sant. But something happened and Rogers kept his money. Daemon had told Rogers by telegraph, collect, that Daemon's father had brought a fameus Morgan stud out to Wyoming sixty years age, and the progeny, raised at $600 feet elevation in the mountains, could win any steeplechase in America.

When arrested Daemon was engaged in sunning a "dude" ranch at "Cottonwood Ranch, 1304 Harney street, Omaha." The postal haspectors found 1304 Harney street to be an alley heart to the University Club, in the heart of Omaha. An acre along there is worth about a million dollars. He wrote the San Gabriel ranch, Alcade, N. M., and told the ranch owner he had fifteen polo players who wanted to go down there to play polo and would pay $75 a week each for their board. Daemon asked for $75 for expenses to come down and see if the San Cabrief ranch was suitable. He got

HIS CAVALRY SCHOOL.

Some time ago Daemon on paper was running the "Rocseveit Boys" Cavairy School" at Wolf Head Creek, Montana, "with 15,000 acres in a high valley between panks 10,000 to 12,000 feet high," etc. The echool, on paper, was "not for poor boys but for sons of rich easterners." The tuition was $3000 per year for each boy. He got amples of clothing and all sorts of supplies from many manufacturers in different parts of the country. He seld the samples. He get commissions from a number of legitimate schools for sending his "overflow" boys to these schools, but the schools never saw the overflow. There was no "Rocsevelt Boys" Cavalry School."

As a fact, the records show that

Ernst did not understand the question as to his guilt put to him at the time of the trial. When asked point blank by an interpreter whether he was guilty of the charge he answered in the affirmative not fully realizing the import of his reply. Ernst only realized after two years spent in priyon that he had been convicted of a serious charge. It was his belief, when on trial, that he was being tried for punishing his daughter.

Charley Paddock Stars in Annual A. A. U. Relay Carnival at Local Coliseum

Track and field gets under way with a rip and a bang and a Charley Paddeck at the Coliseum today, the special occasion being the annual Southern Pacific Amateur Athletic Union relay.

In addition to Paddeck there heart set on breaking the world's will be numbered among those present such familiar athletes as Bud Houser, Lee Barnes, Norman and Otto Anderson, Glenn Graham, Earl Wilson, Cliff Argue, Leighton Dye, Bob Maxwell, Keith Lloyd, Earl Wilson charles the first big event on the 1925 program in Southern California and embraces an entry list of 100 athletes competing in twenty-dive events, of which fourteen are relays.

INTEREST KEEN

Ever since a number of Southern California boys won distinct thonors in the Olympic Games at Paris last summer, the local track and field public has had a keen desire to see them in action ones mors. This is the first opportunity. Barnes and Graham have appeared in a couple of meets, but before their own followers only. Today marks their first appearance before the general public since their return from abroad.

Each Olympic hero will be introduced to the crowd by Charley Keppen. This will probably make them blush a bit at the time, but will spur them on to their best efforts in the competition which follows. Let somebody get up and tell 15,000 people what a man has done, can do and is going to do, and he usually goes out and does something just to prove it.

The English serapper tried hard in the tentih also, but was unable to stand up against the terrific blows that the latter's nose bleeding before the flux and the eighth, and was over.

In justice to Mills, however, it must be said that the little Englishman took his beating gamely, while there was plenty of milling the same over the flux and the end of the experiment of WE'D really like to see them try staging an outdoor boxing bout in Southern California just to see what it would look like. 'Way back in the early days—it must have been about 1908 anyhow, it was when the fleet was making its first visit to our harbor, they staged the fleet boxing championships at Washington Park in conjunction with the A.A.U. (lighting titles, and they certainly had a huge crowd for those battles, although the accommodations for the crowd were very poor—most of the people standing.

for the crowd were very poor —most of the people standing.

In all probability something like 15,000 or 20,000 people would show up for a Walker-Duffy contest and, with an average price of five bucks per speciator, that would make a pretty tidy sum of money for the boys. If Walker, however, insisted in getting seventy-five thousand berries for his own personal end of the affray it isn't very likely to be staged, as mighty few promoters would care about gambling on the success of the thing.

Were Dempsey to fight Har-

Were Dempsey to fight Harry Wills in an open-air amphitheater he would probably draw almost as big a crowd out here as they draw for the big open-air bouts back East. There wouldn't be any 90,000 people, such as attended the Dempsey-Carpentier fracas, but there would be enough to make it pay a pretty tidy aum of money—probably more people out here than the same tight would draw back East.

Fromoters, however, are going to be pretty careful about making wild guarantees for such events for the simple reason that while we seem to have a great sporting public out here and they seem to be willing to turn out in large numbers and pay large gobs of money at the gate, at the same time the thing Basn't been proved as far is prile of the proved as far important matter.

When they get that U.S.C.-Stanford fracas all nicely fixed up and they stage that track meet up at Pale Alto between these two great tracks teams we've an idea that it will be worth the trip to the peninsula just to see Yale Marts and young Mr. Miller of Stanford tangle in the quartermile. If these two youngmen don't ramble under forty-nine seconds it will be something to be suprrised about.

Last year at the Collseum, when the boys tried out for the Olympic team, there were two races that will always be remembered. One was the 440-yard hurdles, when Morton Kaer made a nose dive at the tape and nipped Ken Grumbles by approximately one whisker, and the other was that 48.9 quarrier when Yale Marts shoved his chest across the tape about the same distance in front of Johnny Powers.

distance in front of Johnny Powers.

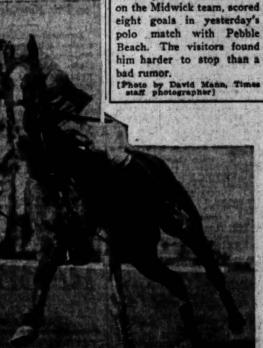

Young Mr. Miller of Stanford didn't meet Marts last year for the good reason that Marts was sprinting when the two teams met. Miller was the big noise all year, consistently running the one-lap distance in under fifty seconds. This year, however, Marts is going to let the sprinters do the sprinting and try running his own race, and if he doesn't set the chaders on fire it will be a big surprise and a disamonimment.

Marts is one of the Trojam demons who will participate in the relay carnival at the Collseum today and everybody will have a chance to see whether he is going to be right up in front again this year as he has been for the past two seasons.

SENSATIONAL BATTLE

SENSATIONAL BATTLE

Despite the fact that Pebble Beach falled to even score, the battle was a sensational one. At the start of the first chukker the score board bore mute evidence that Midwick was ten goals behind. When the se-ond session opened the locals had scored three times. Eric Pedley driving the ball through twics and Teddy Miller getting the other marker. The prospects of overtaking the visitors brightened, but when the only score of the second period was made after a backhand shot by Miller the chanced faded somewhat.

Things looked even darker in the third stanza for Pebble Beach braced and shut out their rivals.
Miller's brilliant riding and great hitting brought Midwick two goals in the fourth pegiod, making the count 10 to 6, af half-time. The fifth chukker saw the national champions at their best, the ball being driven through the uprights four times. Miller was responsible for two of the markers, while Pedley and Perkins got the other pair, the latter taking the ball to the goal line only to have Walter Dillingham's horse save him the trouble of driving it through by kicking it over the line. This brilliant spurt tied the score and there was a big cheer at the accomplishment of the task.

CONFIDENT OF WIN CONFIDENT OF WIN S

Midwick followers were confident that a victory was now within reach, but the sixth period failed to bring it, no scores being made, even though the session produced some of the fascest riding of the clash. In the seventh the locals broke loose again and counted another quartet of markers. Teddy Miller made one of the most spectacular plays of the match in this chukker when he took she ball after the throw-in at the middle of the field and scored with two long, sweeping drives that carried the ball the entiry distance to the goal. Perkina, by his persistent following of the pellet, scored twice, with Miller sounting again just as the period ended.

There was no scoring in the last chukker, Midwick being content with the 14 points. The nearest the visitors came to scoring was in the seventh session, when a hard shot from Edwin Baldwin's mallet struck one of the posts.

Miller's playing was wonderful. It was the best work of his entire (Continued on Page 10, Column 4)

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 27.—San Diego High School held its annual interclasa track meet here today and new records were set in practically every event on the program. With the material on hand it appears as if the local school this year will make the strongest bid since 1915 for the Southern California and State track meets. Former varsity athletes were barred from entering the competition.

The best mark of the meet was made by Gert Ritchey, colored athlete and a new student from a local junior high. Ritchey, who has been a basketball player and with no track practice, jumped 21 feet, 51-4 inches without being pressed. He also won the high jump and the high hurdles. Ritchey, who is only 15 years of age, is halled as one of the greatest athletes who ever entered the local institution.

Harry Holloway, a new find, ran the 440 for the first time and completed the course in 53 4-5 seconds.

CORTOT PLAYS; DEBUSSY'S "SEA" FIRST TIME HERE

Chiefly interesting on the symphony program played yesterday afternoon and to be repeated this evening, was the rendering of Debussy's three pieces under the general title, "La Mer." They were heard for the first time yesterday, as with most Debussy they were subtle and largely of pastel color.

Last year Lieber played the role of Marc Antony in this play, while this year he enacted the less sympathetic, but infinitely more difficult character of Brutus. From comments heard last evening at the theater it was most apparent that many preferred him as Antony. Yet probably there is no figure on the stage today who is better fitted to bring to Brutus the sympathy and understanding which Leiber gained for him. For by the very quality of immeasurable tenderness which Leiber's voice possesses does he make one feel the troubled, sincere and earnest sweetness of Brutus.

Next to Leiber Frank Pater.

Why, why must audiences applaud at the wrong places, as a rule just as the singer takes his last big breath before the most lamportant cadenza in his whole aria! Some one should form a 80-clety for the Suppression of Applause at the Wrong Places.

BARNUM WAS RIGHT'S GLENDALE FEATURE

Fred J. Butler, who is now directing and producing "Barnum Was Right" to be put on at the Playhouse. Glendale, Monday Leiber gained for him. For by the very quality of immeasurable tenderness which Leiber's voice possesses does he make one feel the troubled, sincere and earnest sweetness of Brutus.

Next to Leiber, Frank Peters vave the best individual performance in the title role. Not even in the slightest detail of gesture or mannerism did he fail to characterize the majestic, power-drunken man. His first appearance in festal tobes, the crowd awed and silent as he spoke, and his words received as those of an aracle were brought out with dramatic artistry.

John Alexander made of Anthony a sibilant, unprepossessing personality, during the first three acts. But in his speech over the dead Ceasar he wholly and dramatically redeemed himself. His repressed emotion, tinging deepest grief, and flaming anger, was a thing at which to wonder.

Even with her few lines as Portia, wife to Brutus, Virginia Brosoon, failed to give us anything but a theatrical, over-acted character.

Perhaps the most effective bit of presentation was the ironical emphasis through which Caesar's shade was made to be more powerful to avenge his fall than he himself was the guard against it.

FORE!—A HIT COMING

Fore!
What does it mean? Those who frequent golf courses. or have caddles in the family, already know. But the general public is beginning to wonder, particularly since the advance notices of "Kelly's Vacation," to be presented by Louis O. Macloon at the Playhouse tomorrow night, have held many printings of the word, for "Kelly's Vacation" is a voif comedy.

ACRETT LOST

While on location in La Jolla, Marian Constance, scenarist for the set production and roughly outlined the story which is to follow. On the return from location, the writing case containing all this written material disappeared. It is presumed that it bounced out of the automobile.

The material is of no use to any person exer of Miss Constance, who is anxious to recover it because of the eno mous amount of hard work which will be avoided by its return. A generous reward will be given for the case and its comed.

Sanitation Engineer Talks at Meeting of Citizens at El Monte

Proposed organization of Sani-ation District No. 7 of Los Angeles county was explained by ren to a group of citizens repre-senting the communities of El rovia, Monterey Park, Sierra Madre and Rosemead last night at a meeting at the El Monte Chamber of Commerce Building. He outlined the procedure in organization in calling a bond election and other details necessary to link that district up with the county sewer system.

It was decided that the representatives will meet again on March 13, next, at the Alhambra Chamber of Commerce rooms to take formal and definite action in the matter.

A metropolitan sanitary sewer system for Los Angeles county was assured last Tuesday when District No. 5, composed of Inglewood and adjoining communities, voted in favor of the creation of the district. Previously districts Nos. 1 and 2 had approved bonds. So far bonds aggregating $3,120,000 have been voted. Other districts will vote, but the project is assured, Mr. Warren said.

What Is Your Favorite Sport?

Do you play golf? Do you shoot ducks? Do you enjoy bass fishing, swimming, tennis and boating? Do you like to ride horseback? Do you indulge in trapshooting? Do you dance?

If you do any of these, you owe it to yourself to find out all about Los Serranos Country Club, because it combines all these pastimes and recreations in one membership.

Los Serranos Country Club is on the threshold of the city. It is two miles south of Chino and reached by way of Valley boulevard through Pomona. It is an hour-and-a-half ride through fairyland.

Here there is a 330-acre paradise for you. A lake, 18-hole all-grass golf course and a beautiful clubhouse. This Country Club was started 100 years ago -that is why it is so complete and so beautiful. It is a reality—not merely proposed. $500,000 has already been expended here. You see what you get when you become a member at Los

We welcome your inspection of the grounds. Come out this week-end as our guest. It will be a treat for you and in no way obligates you.

"The zoning decisions handed down by the Supreme Court today, which uphold the city on every point, are epoch-making for every incorporated city and county in the United States," and Charles H. Cheney, secretary of the California Conference on City Planning, author of the State Zoning Enabling Act and other ordinances adopted and in effect in Long Beach, Berkeley, Alameda, Palo Alto and other California cities.

"These decisions particularly protect single family homes and the home neighborhood by decisively holding that the State Constitution has given our cities ample police power authority to establish certain districts, or zones, for single family dwellings, This is the final consummation of the protection we have been fighting for consistently in this State since 1916, when Berkeley established the first single family dwelling zones ever constituted in any American city by city ordinance. Since that time, cities all over the country have taken up this kind of protection for home neighborhoods but this is the first Supreme Court decision on the question in California; and the greatest credit is due City Attorney Stevens for aghting it through six ably, Every city in this country that hereafter gets into court on this matter will quote the Los Angeles decisions as a precedent."

CHURCHES TO AID SCIENCE

Against Wild Speculative Theories

Dr. Robert A. Millikan, in an address given in Los Angeles some time ago, printed to the fact that the war commonly thought to exist between science and religion is in reality a conflict between creedists and psuedo-scientists and that there is no quarrel between those in-dividuals and institutions whose mutual objective is the ascertainment dividuals and institutions whose mutual objective is the ascertainment of the truth.

It is significant that the great army of truth-lovers is being constantly recruited from both ecclesiastical and scientific fields, as evidenced by the fact that many prominent clergymen and renowned scientists are manifesting a willingness to meet one another in public discussions and debates. Many progressive churches of various denominations are calling a halt on certain too-sealous Christian soldiers who fight under the banner of Revelation, not because the progressive churches believe the scientists to be altogether than the contents of the scientists to be altogether than the contents of the scientists to be altogether than the contents of the scientists to be altogether than the scientists of the scientists are sent than the content of the scientists of the scientists are sent than the content of the scientists of the army of truth-lovers is being constantly recruited from both ecclesiastical and scientific fields, as evidenced by the fact that many prominent clergymen and remowned scientists are manifesting a willingness to meet one another in public discussions and debates. Many progressive churches of various denominations are calling a hait on certain too-sealous Christian soldlers who fight under the banner of Revelation, not because the progressive churches believe the scientists to be altogether right but because they are willing to concede that it is possible even for organized Christianity to be unjust to science.

The second session of the conference of ministers and laymen who would uphold science against wild and unsupported speculative theories will be conducted at the Frinity Methodist Episcopal Church at 3 p. m. next Monday.

Bo To Church Sunday

thy You Should Go To Church

By Rev. M. Howard Fagan-Wilshire Blod. Christian Church Every man is religious. Not all are willing to admit it, but the fact is, "man is a worshiping animal; he is incurably religious." Plato said: "It is religion more than any other one thing that differentiates man from the lower animals." There was a time when men were urged to "get" religion, as though it were some extraneous article that could be secured and added to one's possessions. Now we know every man HAS religion. Implanted within him by his Creator is the desire for communion with God. What he needs is to nurture, cultivate and develop the religious nature with which he has been endowed. For this purpose the church exists—to bring men to God through Jesus Christ. Every church in the community stands as a challenge to men to remember God and to develop their religious nature. No greater good can come to any man than that which comes to him through religion. The religion of Jesus Christ brings out the very best that is in man.

Although Americans constitute composite type, we are still cond to claim kinship with a race, hich, whatever virtues or faults may possess, has been charactised throughout history by its miss for and insistence upon at act some modicum of self-government. We find this to be the se in the feudal organization as meserged from the continent of strope in the tenth century. Even the Vassais insisted upon at received the grant of certain dividual liberties. Our race has agistently refused to be govened by a king or other autocratiding absolute sway over his bisets. The rights that we sated from unwilling King John the Magna Charta, and the Ensh Bill of Rights created some ur centuries later, are simply lestones in the struggle for and ainment of certain inalienable his commonly known as the abint rights of individuals. No theory of the state as the a and aim of government—sory which plunged Germany in the World War—has ever found plongment in the mind and rice of the Angle-Sazon race.

It developed the couple had been married in 1897 and separated in 1896. Divorce court records showed Pompsy had sued his wife for divorce many years ago, but had dropped the action after a settlement had been effected.

According to Fompsy, the couple then went their separate ways until 1821, when Mrs. Pompsy used for divorce. This action was said to have been denied, and Judge Burnell held Mrs. Pompsy has no cause to ask that her husband be compelled to support her now.

Explosion Not Fatal and Men Are Transferred

Sent to Navy Hospital at Sar Diego Base

Harold Blume, One of Injured from Long Beach

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 27.—Two men were seriously but not fatalburned in an explosion on the of California early this morning, according to radio dispatches reeived at Eleventh Naval District eadquarters here this afternoon. The injured are Edward L. Craig The injured are Edward L. Craig and Harold Blume, firemen, first class. The former lives here. Blume's address is given as 1755 East First street. Long Beach.

Details of the explosion were not available in the first reports but as Lieut. Thomas Macklin, commanding the Koka, has not called for assistance, it is believed the damage was not great. Craig and Blume were transferred this morning to the transport Nitro, which was summoned by radio, and the men will be brought to the naval hospital here.

The Koka sailed from this port saturday for Pich to tow to San Diego two coal barges from that coaling base, which is to be abandoned by the United States government April 1 at the request of the Mexican government.

ment April 1 at the request of the Mexican government.

No report regarding the damage sustained by the Koka was received by local naval authorities from Lieut, Thomas Macklin, commanding officer of the tug. As Lieut, Macklin did not ask for any assistance the opinion was expressed that the flareback from the ofi burners did not damage the ship to any extent.

The Koka sailed from San Diego last Saturday for Pichilinque to two back to this port two coal lighters and other equipment from the coaling base, which, at the request of the Mexican government, is to be abandoned April 1.

PUT-IT-OFFS IN LICENSE RUSH

Mr. and Mrs. Procrastination and Whole Family in Line for Hours to Obtain 1925 Auto Plates from Bureau and Automobile Club; Penalty Effective After Monday

The annual crush of the Put-itoff family began yesterday.

Suddenly remembering that only three days remained for the acquisition of 1925 automobile licenses—until Monday night in fact—Mr. and Mrs. William Put-itoff and their fulsome family yesterday concentrated attacks upon the State Motor Vehicle Department, 1820 South Flower etreet, and the Automobile Club of Southern California, 2601 South Flaueros street, in last-minute attempts to forestall a possible 100 per cent pensitys

The Put-it-offs directed their chief attack on the Motor Vehicle Department, standing in long lines that extended to Eighteenth street and down Hope street, abifting from foot to foot, bemaning lack of foresight and making fervent promises for 1926. Some obtained their licenses yesterday, others didn't — they arrived too late and will stand in like again today or Monday.

"For two weeks we were able to handle 5000 more applications every day," M. F. Brown, manager of the Motor Vehicle Department, said yesterday, others didn't — they arrived too

CHAPLIN TRIAL ENDS TODAY

I Judge Hudner to Hear Plaintiff's Final Argument; Early Decision Not Expected

The final wind-up of the Chaplin-Apiln suit will come this afternoon when Judge Hudner will conduct a special session of court to hear the concluding argument of Attorney Charles Millikan of counsel for Chaplin. Judge Hudner must return to Hollister, Cal., to conduct court Monday, he said. A decision is not expected for some weeklers, to find comething suits.

Yesterday was devoted to argument by Attorney Loyd Wright for Chaplin and Attorneys Ben Goldman and Jacob Lieberman for Charles Amador, alias Charles Ap-lin, accused by the comedian of imi-
